Speaker Bio
Peggy Liu has been at the heart of the greening of China over the last decade, and consults companies and governments on sustainability and cross-cultural collaboration. Peggy is Chairperson of Joint US-China Collaboration on Clean Energy (JUCCCE), a leading NGO accelerating the greening of China for a healthier world. She co-founded JUCCCE out of the first public dialogues between US and China governments on clean energy. JUCCCE has led giga-scale change across China in sustainable cities, sustainable consumerism, energy efficient lighting, and smart grid. Her programmatic focus today, “Food Heroes” play-based education, improves diets in families to transform our food system for personal and planetary health.

As the most visible of China’s environmentalists, she is an informal ambassador of China’s green journey and explainer of how China works. Peggy is a regularly featured keynote speaker on stages such as WEF and TED, and a highly sought-after expert in major news and documentaries such as BBC, CNN, NPR, and Discovery Channel.
One of the world’s leading environmentalists, and bridge into China. Charming and powerful, Peggy is an experienced TED speaker and uses powerful imagery and emotional stories to bring her points to life.

Peggy speaking at a government training program (PLACEHOLDER)

Peggy giving a keynote at ZEROKONFERANSEN 2016, the biggest event organized by the Zero Emission Resource Organisation based in Oslo, Norway
As a Distinguished Professor at China Academy of Governance, a lecturer at China Executive Leadership Academy of Pudong, and the National Academy for Mayors of China, Peggy has taught over 1000 Chinese government officials on sustainable urbanization. She is one of the top international experts who truly knows how China operates at the government-level. Her many successful initiatives at JUCCCE, such as the one that led to the Chinese government dedicating US$7.2 billion to deploying Smart Grid by 2020, has given her the key to unlocking the hidden power of China through collaborative leadership. This insight is extremely valuable to corporations and people looking for keynotes on China insights.
